Civic Chorus Presents Concert Friday, May 15

The Appomattox Civic Chorus will present its second concert Friday, May 15 at 8 p.m. at the Appomattox High School auditorium.

The thirty - voice Chorus will present both classic and popular numbers, ranging from Skaner's "God So Loved the World" to Rodgers and Hammerstein's "Surrey with the Fringe on the Top." "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes", "Battle Hymn of the Republic", and Gates' arrangement of the 'Lord's Prayer" are included in the program.

The Chorus, organized in November, 1963, has become a popular Sunday afternoon "institution" in Appomattox. The first concert, a part of Handel's 'Messiah" given in December of last year, was well received. Additional singers have joined the chorus since then, and under the direction of Reverend Thomas A. Waddill, of Spout Spring, have prepared for their third public appearance. The Chorus sang for the community Easter Sunrise service, March 29.

Mrs. Gillette Elder is accompanist.

There will be no admission charge for Friday's concert, but the public, cordially invited to attend the concert, will be given an opportunity to present a silver offering, if they so desire.
